

B BRIAN

SONGWRITER · SONIC ARCHITECT · TEXAS

Press & Licensing One-Sheet

BIOGRAPHY

B Brian is a songwriter and sonic architect based in Texas. His work — layered with syncopated harmonies and unconventional modalities — builds cinematic sonic landscapes that are intimate, defiant, and built to be lost inside. Across the debut God & Monsters (2024), the current Love Supposed (2025), and the forthcoming An Idiot's Dream (Spring 2027), he trades the conventional for the authentic and the obvious for the enigmatic. Released & guided by Nom De Guerre Music.

“God and Monsters ultimately evolves to repeat one central idea: that these fictional heroes and horrors are as real as the days we share.”

— STEREO STICKMAN
